

ORDINANCE NO. 1993-5

WHEREAS, the Town Council of the Town of Brookland, Arkansas, has determined that the previous City Ordinance No. 1991-4 is in need of modification to simplify and coordinate the placement of mobile homes with the Town of Brookland;

NOW THEREFORE, the Town Council of Brookland does hereby ordain as follows:

1. It is hereby ordained by the Town Council of Brookland, Arkansas, that Ordinance No. 1991-4 is hereby amended to add the following wording:

Paragraph III of the Ordinance shall be amended to read: "Upon application of any such individual or entity, the Mayor and Building Inspector will then examine each application, and, if being necessary, may require an inspection of any proposed mobile home to determine its appearance, quality of construction and its compliance with all of Brookland and State of Arkansas building, electrical and plumbing codes."

Paragraph IV of the Ordinance shall be amended to read: "Any person making application to the Town of Brookland for the placement of a mobile home or location of a mobile home site or park shall be assessed an application fee of $5.00."

2. It is further ordained that the addendum to the ordinance shall be amended to reflect that in Paragraph (2) under Mobile Home Parks, this sub-paragraph shall be amended to read as follows:

"Permit for placement of single mobile homes shall be left to the direct control of the Mayor and Building Inspector. All regulations of the Code of Ordinances must be met before a permit shall be issued."

3. The orderly execution and enforcement of the aforesaid ordinance is necessary for the safety, peace and welfare of the Town of Brookland and its inhabitants and is of extreme importance. Therefore, same is determined to constitute an emergency and this ordinance shall therefore be effective from and after its passage.
