

STATE OF ARKANSAS
City of Brookland

Executive Office
Office of the Mayor

Proclamation

WHEREAS, The 2010 Decennial Census plays an essential role in the social and economic successes enjoyed by all Arkansas residents, and

WHEREAS, The work of the 2010 Decennial Census requires advanced planning, training, implementation and promotion in order to obtain a complete and accurate count of all residents of Arkansas, and

WHEREAS, U. S. Census Awareness Month will be observed to recognize the importance of the 2010 Decennial Census and the contribution that it plays in securing that residents of Arkansas are adequately represented at all levels of government, and that Arkansans receive their fair share of our nation's resources, and

WHEREAS, The theme of Census Awareness Month 2009 is "Stand-Up and Be Counted" which reflects the enthusiasm that the people of Brookland, Arkansas and the U.S. Census Bureau have in striving for a complete count of our residents.

NOW, THEREFORE I, Kenneth D. Jones, Mayor, City of Brookland, Arkansas hereby proclaim April 2009 as U.S. Census Awareness Month, recognizing the value of a complete and accurate Decennial Census. I call upon all residents of the City of Brookland to support and promote the 2010 Census by recognizing that a complete and accurate population count is essential for Brookland's continued success.

On this 31st day of March, 2009:

Kenneth D. Jones
Mayor
