

STATE OF ARKANSAS

City of Brookland

RECOGNIZING BROOKLAND EAST LAB & PROCLAIMING "GREETINGS FROM HOME MONTH" IN BROOKLAND

WHEREAS: The City of Brookland and Brookland Public Schools have a long and rich history of working together to promote events and activities that are beneficial to both the institution and the community; and

WHEREAS: Brookland EAST Lab has become a critical and strategic partner of the City of Brookland in helping to promote our community and its citizens; and

WHEREAS: It is the desire of Brookland EAST Lab to help honor the men and women of the United States Armed Services for their service and contribution to protecting our democracy and freedom; and

WHEREAS: They are encouraging citizens of Brookland and Northeast Arkansas to join them in sending greetings this holiday season to soldiers stationed throughout the world through a program sponsored by the USO; and

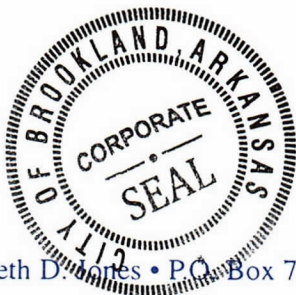

WHEREAS: Students from Brookland East Lab set up computer stations at The Mall at Turtle Creek on December 3rd and 4th, at which time they promoted and facilitated those greetings being sent directly to soldiers; and

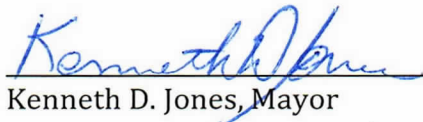

THEREFORE, I Kenneth D. Jones, by the authority duly invested in me by the citizens of Brookland and the State of Arkansas, do hereby recognize their efforts and proclaim the month of December 2010 as:

GREETINGS FROM HOME MONTH

In and throughout the City of Brookland; and would encourage all citizens to support their efforts by participating in sending a holiday greeting to a member of our military who is stationed abroad this season.

Proclaimed this 14th day of December, 2010:

Kenneth D. Jones, Mayor
